Welcome to Tennessee!

We're glad you have chosen to visit our state. In Tennessee, you will drive along a highway system named one of the top five in the nation for the past 17 years. While visiting, we hope you will spend time at some of Tennessee's new attractions like Dollywood's DreamMore Resort in the foothills of Great Smoky Mountains National Park, the Bass Pro Shops at the Pyramid in Memphis or Birthplace of Country Music Museum in Bristol. In Chattanooga, Knoxville, Memphis, Nashville and all throughout the state you can experience beautiful landscapes, tour important American history sites, visit family-friendly attractions, and listen to our music that delivers "The Soundtrack of America." Also, be sure to enjoy some Tennessee barbecue – recently named best in the U.S. by TripAdvisor. Enjoy Tennessee. We hope you will visit often.

Safety is a Priority
Major safe-driving, public awareness programs for safe Tennessee highways include:

- On most rural interstates, the speed limit is 70 mph. Lowered limits in urban areas.
- Blood Alcohol Concentration limit in Tennessee is .08%.
- "Move Over" on Tennessee interstates when emergency responders are positioned on the shoulder or in a lane.
- The Tennessee Yellow DOT Program is designed to provide first responders with an individual's medical information in the event of an emergency on Tennessee's roadways.
- The Protect the Queue movement stresses to all TDOT employees and partnering agencies the importance of protecting drivers caught in a traffic queue with significant warning of what's ahead.
- TDOT promotes "quick clearance" of highway incidents.

TDOT Comments
TDOT Comments allows citizens to share comments, concerns, suggestions and complaints. The email is monitored by TDOT Community Relations staff in Nashville, and is checked several times daily. Those who leave contact information will receive a response within three days. TDOT.Comments@tn.gov
