If I were a raindrop this is what I would do. I would drop down into a little creek. As I looked around I see other rain drops. Some are green and blue others are brown from the mud. As I flow down the creek I think of what I'm going to do. I look around and all I see is water. I look like a dimond shape. I'm blue with a little tent of green. As I think I come to the end of the river I realized something. I'm about to go off a waterfall. I try to flow the other way but the curant is to strong. So I just gave up. I went down the waterfall very fast. I thought fire was burning me. When I got at the bottom I thought I might be dead. I opened my eyes and saw beautiful things around me. There was flowers, insects, and people. I thought I was in heaven. I saw lots of colors. Some were bright and some were pail. Everything was so pretty. I even saw other raindrops. They looked so happy. All of a sudden it giit raining. The sun came out. More flowers bloomed. I found a raindrop that was cool. She was pretty to. We became friends. When it became afternoon I thought more things I could do. Something hit me. I could go and find more friends. When I went out looking I found to nice boys and one girl. We all became friends We did everything together. We were friends forever. All of a Sudden it started to rain again. More and more raindrops fell into the water. It was amazing to see so many drops fall at once. There must of been about twenty fall at once. I kept on flowing down the river. Well it started to get dark when I hit dry land. I couldn't move. So I stayed there forever. intil the next minute I died. Next, time maybe I'll stay in the water.
