Well what I Like most about school is that I have friends to talk to, and I have very good teacher's that try there best to help us learn. The teachers' at Name County middle school are the best teacher's in the world.

I think all eight^th graders should go to Name County middle school, because it a very good place for kids to learn, and have fun while you are learning in your school books. That what I like about school.

Well the most thing I like about my school is that everybody is nice to everybody, because there are hardly any fights in the bathroom or even out in the halls. And to me I think that is great.

Well the second thing I like about my school is that the food is very good, breakfast and lunch, but really I think breakfast is the best, because Most of the time it is sausage and biscuit.

Well that what I Like about my school and why
