

ATTORNEY EXEMPTIONS

Tennessee's attorney exemption statute, codified at Tenn. Code Ann. 62-20-103, exempts "attorneys at law" from complying with the Collection Service Act. However, the board has recently, by informal ruling, limited the scope of this exemption to extend only to attorneys that are 1) licensed to practice law in Tennessee and 2) acting in a representative or advisory capacity on behalf of a client that is owed a debt.
