RE: Ethics Ordinance

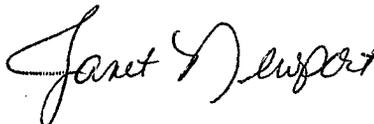

Dear Sirs,

Please accept this letter as notification that the City of Charleston has adopted the model ethics ordinance as prepared by the University of Tennessee's Municipal Technical Advisory Service. The ordinance passed its final reading on Tuesday, April 10, 2007. A copy of the page showing the dates and signed by the Mayor is enclosed for your records.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please feel free to contact me at 423/336-1981, Monday - Friday, 8:00 am till 4:00 pm, EST.

Sincerely,

CITY OF CHARLESTON

Janet Newport, City Recorder

Enclosure

regulation, the violation shall be dealt with as a violation of the personnel or civil service provisions rather than as a violation of this code of ethics.

SECTION 11. Violations. An elected official or appointed member of a separate municipal board, commission, committee, authority, corporation, or other instrumentality who violates any provision of this chapter is subject to punishment as provided by the municipality's charter or other applicable law and in addition is subject to censure by the governing body. An appointed official or an employee who violates any provision of this chapter is subject to disciplinary action.

SECTION 12 This ordinance shall take effect from and after its final passage, the public welfare requiring it.

Past on first reading 13 day of MARCH, 2007.

Mayor

Attest: Janet D Newport
