

Category III Non-Public Online Schools

To be an acceptable online non-public school for students who reside in Tennessee, the school must accept Tennessee students and be accredited by one of the regional accrediting agencies listed below:

1. Cognia (formerly AdvancED, SACS)
2. Middle States Association—Commission on Elementary and Secondary Schools (MSA-CESS)
  - MSCES—Middle States Commission on Elementary Schools
  - MSCSS—Middle States Commission on Secondary Schools
3. New England Association of Schools and Colleges (NEASC)
4. Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC)
5. Any accrediting association recognized by the International Council Advancing Independent School Accreditation (ICAISA) (formerly NAIS Commission on Accreditation) including, but not limited to, the Southern Association of Independent Schools (SAIS)
6. Any accrediting association recognized by the National Council of Private School Accreditation (NCPISA)

This is a partial listing of accredited Category III non-public online schools – Please check the websites of these schools to ascertain that they are actively accredited by one of the associations listed above. Accreditation status may change. Ultimately, it is the responsibility of the parent to determine that their child is attending an appropriately accredited online school.
