

Current Consultant Selection for September 15, 2021, CM/GC On-Call project Construction Advertisement.

In accordance with the Department's Procurement Policy for Engineering and Technical Services, The Tennessee Department of Transportation has selected the following firm to provide On-Call Consultant General Engineering Services as described in the September 15, 2021, Advertisement.

Item No.1

CM/GC On-Call Engineering Services: The Consultant Services include the field surveys, roadway design, geotechnical engineering, utility and railroad coordination, environmental services, traffic operation, CPM schedule, construction estimate and other engineering services for roadway design and construction for TDOT Statewide projects. The Consultant team will need to provide Engineering Services, CMGC Procurement Services, Utility and RR Coordination, Geotechnical, Environmental, and other services as required for CM/GC Projects.

Firm Name	HDR Engineering, Inc.
------------------	------------------------------