

Crash! I heard when I got up, my foot was in the floor. When I got my foot out of the floor I went down stairs. I saw my mom and dad in tites "Hi ?" my parents said. "I'm hungry what is there to eat?" I said. they didn't say anything so I ate some cereal. then I went out side and the next thing I knew I was flying. Right then and there I knew I was a super hero so I went to see if I had super powers. I had all the powers in the world. Next I saw a super villain trying to stole all the money out of the bank. when I defeated him I went home because it was dark. I got there faster than a lightning bolt. when I went to sleep it was all a dream. Have you ever saw a super hero?

G-11Score Point: 3

This response reflects limited proficiency in narrative writing skills. The response describes what it was like the day the writer awoke as a superhero; however, the attempt to develop the events is, for the most part, general. Some facility in sentence structure and the use of dialogue is demonstrated. Further specific development and fewer errors in writing conventions would be required for a higher score.
