

Congestion Mitigation and Air Quality Improvement (CMAQ)

New or Expanded Transit Service

This initiative will add or expand transit service along key commuting corridors. This may include areas not currently served by existing transit service. Expanding transit service improves air quality and reduces congestion by increasing transit ridership and reducing vehicle trips.

- New bus routes can make transit a viable alternative to the personal automobile.
- Reducing vehicle trips reduces air emissions, saves fuel costs and decreases congestion levels.

